Text: Acts 16:22-34

I. WHAT CHRIST FREES US FROM

1. The _____ of sin

Acts 16

"Sirs, what must I do...? "

v.30

Paul doesn't tell him: Be religious, be better, clean up your act

He simply says, "Believe..."

v.31

Freedom begins with _____

2. The _____ of sin

"About midnight Paul and Silas were _____ and _____ to God..."

v.25

3. The guilt of sin

The jailer comes trembling. But after believing... "...he rejoiced..."

Guilt becomes joy. Conviction becomes celebration!

v.35

4. The fear of _____

v.27,28

Roman law required the jailer to die, if prisoners escaped.

He believed death was his only option.

Paul shouts, "Do yourself no harm!"

5. The Bondage of Satan

v.29-34

Earlier in the chapter (Acts 16:16-18), Paul delivers a demonized slave girl. Now the jailer himself is delivered - from Satanic bondage.

II. WHAT CHRIST FREES US UP FOR

1. _____ God

The jailer moves from asking..."What must I do to be saved?" To entrusting his life & future to Christ.

v.31-34

Religion ends. The _____ begins.

2. Loving People

The same man who had guarded prisoners...

Now _____

v.33

Grace changes _____ people.

3. _____ Others

v.31-34

Washes wounds, feeds them, welcomes them into his home

Saved people are _____

4. Discovering _____

v.31-34

His home instantly becomes a place of ministry, his family hears the Gospel, his family is baptized

One _____ ... One _____ ... A new purpose!

5. Living A _____ & _____ Life

(Jn.10:10)

Note the final words: "...he rejoiced greatly..."

v.34
